Pooch Plunge! Ever wonder where your used tennis balls go? BETC works hard to find second homes for our tennis balls and recently donated bags to the City of Renton and the Henry Moses Aquatic Center for their end of summer event for our canine companions! ## New BETC Pros!

Welcome new BETC Pros, Olga Gastruk and Don Hosch! Olga and Don are available for private and private group lessons for players of all ages and abilities. Contact them at the emails provided or ask the front desk about availability.

As a junior, Olga Gastruk attained impressive national rankings in her native country of Ukraine, placing at the top of national rankings before moving to the United States and winning Eddie Herr in mixed doubles as a 12 year old. She competed on the international arena in Europe and United States throughout her junior career and trained at a high-performance tennis academy in Florida. Some highlights of Olga's competitive career include placing 4th in singles at the U18 Ukrainian National Championships and taking 3rd place in an Open National Ukrainian Championship in mixed doubles. Olga also reached two doubles finals of U18 ITF junior events in Barbados and Tunisia.

Olga went on to play four seasons for the Division I University of Maryland Women's tennis team from 2013-16. While at the University of Maryland, she pursued her interest in fitness and strength conditioning and attained a Bachelor of Sciences degree in Kinesiology.

Since graduating Olga has transferred her love for tennis into coaching and has now been teaching tennis for 6 years. As a coach, Olga brings a very positive, confident style to her teaching, and has experience teaching at several tennis facilities, including the Bomond Tennis Club in Ukraine, and The Tennistar Sports Facility in Bethesda, Maryland.

Don Hosch comes to BETC with over 10 years of coaching experience, and has recently arrived from sunny Southern California, where he taught at the Springs Club in Rancho Mirage. While there, Don also excelled at developing players in the Temecula area as a private coach. Before his stint at The Springs, Don also served as a staff professional at the Carmel Valley Athletic Club in Monterey.

Don began his love for the game as a junior player in the great state of Texas and then turned his attention to gymnastics, where he became an expert coach respected in the field. After twenty years of coaching gymnastics at the highest level, he came back to tennis. Don spent several years in New Mexico where he coached his own children's High School team and captained 4.5, 4.5+ and 5.0 USTA League teams for the Santa Fe Tennis and Swim Club. He led his students to two State team titles and two trips to Junior Team Nationals. Several of his protégés went on to flourish on successful college tennis teams.

Don has held a prestigious "Professional" USPTA rating for over seven years and enjoys working with all levels of play.
