ADULT BEYOND

One big thing is not what holds us back from reaching the next level in our game; several small skills do. Discover, identify, and develop proficiency at those skills and begin the journey to go Beyond your current level. Beyond will focus on identifying the specific skills each player needs to reach for the next level, and how to begin the process of improving those skills. Each player will have a developmental plan based upon their specific needs and goals; time on court will be geared toward those skills.
